The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims are allowable over Shirakawa because Shirakawa uses propylene glycol monoalkyl ether as a blocking agent for polyisocyanate and not as a solvent for the blocked polyisocyanate. The claims differ from Blank, who shows methoxy propyl acetate or propylene carbonate as a solvent for beta-hydroxypropyl urethane. Eswarakrishnan shows ethylene glycol monoalkyl ether as a possible solvent for a coating comprising a polyisocyanate with propylene glycol listed among a list of possible blocking agents. He mentions methoxy propanol as a possible solvent for the hydrogen containing material of the coating, but the applicants show, in their examples, that the combination of the propylene glycol in the urethane and the specified solvent provides a pourable coating versus other combinations of solvents and capping agents which form solids.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
